

I Keep Hoping

Tommy Page

(Hoping, waiting)

The love is right but the timing is wrong oh
What I feel you're not feeling
But I believe in time that you'll find
I'm the one you're needing
So while you're holding somebody else oh
I'm holding you in my dreams at night
Every day I wake up wondering how I'm gonna get you
How I'm gonna get you in my life

I keep hoping that your heart will change your mind
I keep waiting for the day that you'll be mine
I keep praying, I keep waiting yeah
For the day love steps into your heart
And leads you to these arms of mine
And you're holding me, loving me, yeah

One day someday I'll see in your eyes oh
All the love that I'm feeling
And you'll come to me and you'll see
It's my love you're needing
One day when I reach for you I'll find you there beside me
Someday when you look for love you'll look my way
Some night when you close your eyes
I'll be the one you dream of
But I'll just keep on dreaming till that day

I keep hoping that your heart will change your mind
I keep waiting for the day that you'll be mine
I keep praying, I keep waiting yeah
For the day love steps into your heart
And leads you to these arms of mine
And you're holding me, loving me

I know someday you'll see the one you need is me
I can feel it in my heart that you're gonna be mine yeah
But until that day is here, until I have you near I'll keep wishing and praying, waiting and waiting

Hoping
I keep hoping
Praying
I keep praying
Waiting
I keep waiting
Hoping
And you're holding me, loving me

I keep hoping that your heart will change your mind
I keep waiting for the day that you'll be mine
I keep praying, I keep waiting yeah
For the day love steps into your heart
And leads you to these arms

I keep hoping that your heart will change your mind
I keep waiting for the day that you'll be mine

I keep praying, I keep waiting yeah
For the day love steps into your heart
And leads you to these arms of mine

Praying
