

Chrono Trigger

Tommy Richman

Caught up in my bedroom
Don't know what to feel, yeah, I thought you was
Don't know what you're drinking
Lonely ways of dealing with a simple drug

Don't know if you like me
I don't know
Don't know what you came for
The only ways you fight me
Cannonball
Used to ways you pray for

I kinda wanna pick up on a couple things
"I don't wanna know," said my pinky ring ring
I can I keep the things keep the things from the store
All these wondering people think the fucking floorboard

Don't know if you like me
I wanna, I wanna, I wanna
I wanna, I wanna know, know
Is this just like yesterday? You kissed me through the phone
Is this just like anything? 'Cause I wanna be known
I wanna, I wanna, I wanna
I wanna, I wanna know, know
Mango cans drinking them 'cause three dollars rude

I was so dumb, shit all in my basement
Didn't know what to do, so I just jumped up in the matrix
Going out tonight, we going out tonight
Why'd you sell yourself so short tonight?
