

This Way

Tompi

Sugar, baby...

I need to forget it to move on
But I can still remember your smile
As if somewhere you close to me
How can it be

I need to erase you from my mind
But I still feel your arms holding me
Everytime I close my eyes

Now you have gone so far away
But your presence still too real
Why you left me to feel this way

I still feel your warm breath in my ear
When you whispered the sweetest thing
Why you left me to feel this way
This way...

Don't you know, baby
That this feeling
Keeps me waiting like
Like you'll come back to me
And sometimes in my dreams
I see you're smiling
But when i wake up
It's just disappeared...

Now you have gone so far away
But your presence still too real
Why you left me to feel this way

I still feel your warm breath in my ear
When you whispered the sweetest thing
Why you left me to feel this way
