

5 Minutes

Tone Stith

How do sweet words that you say to me
Turn to heartbreak, broken promises?
But still goodbyes don't exist
In this little world we created
Different night, different day, we still play the same game
We had time, we had space, don't know if we'll ever change
Am I still stuck in denial? Lately, my mind's running wild
'Cause there's still no answers

But it's the feeling that I get when you're holding me
I don't regret, no
I'ma put my pride aside for now
We don't got a while

If it's only five minutes that I'm getting
You know that it's worth the time
If it's only five minutes that I'm giving
You know that I'll be around
I'd rather you just lead me on
Instead of us just letting go
I've never felt a love this strong
If it's only for a moment, I'm gon' spend it with you

How does sweet love that you give to me
Turn to distance and anxiety?
You go M.I.A. then I take my break
And got the nerve to get mad when I try to move on
When the curtains is starting to close
Starting to close
Then you rehearse and go put on a show
And the bond we made, it just won't break
We're tied at soul, it's like you won't let go

But it's the feeling that I get when you're holding me
I don't regret, no
I'ma put my pride aside for now
We don't got a while

If it's only five minutes that I'm getting
You know that it's worth the time
If it's only five minutes that I'm giving
You know that I'll be around
I'd rather you just lead me on
Instead of us just letting go
I've never felt a love this strong
If it's only for a moment, I'm gon' spend it with you

But it's the feeling that I get when you're holding me
I don't regret, no
I'ma put my pride aside for now
I don't regret, no
