

Perfect Timing

Tone Stith

Hit me on my line, tellin' me the same thing every time
You should be mine, baby
How could someone let a good thing go and walk out they life?
He didn't try, baby
So bring it around my way
Turn around your whole day
I'ma play my part, babe
I'ma fix your heartbreak

'Cause you bad than a muh' (Muh')
Body got curves like a muh' (Muh')
Hit that swerve on the muh' (Swerve)
Almost wrecked my car
When I seen your name (Name)
Pop up on the screen (Screen)
No, I don't text and drive
But I hit reply
Where you at right now?
You and me can slide
Watch me pull up in five minutes
Got the perfect timing
I got everything you don't know you need
See, the rest can't provide what I want and I need

Hit me on my line, tellin' me the same thing every time
You should be mine, baby
How could someone let a good thing go and walk out they life?
He didn't try, baby
So bring it around my way
Turn around your whole day
I'ma play my part, babe
I'ma fix your heartbreak

He just slowed you down, I'ma bless you now (Now)
I can see your halo, so why you on the ground? (Yeah, why?)
Know you wanna believe (Oh), you can have faith in me (Oh yeah)
You got wings like an angel, fly by in a Range Rove' (Range Rove')
I need you on me, need your company
Be your MVP, clutch like 23
Oh, they ain't got nothing on me, naw
They ain't got nothing that we got
No, no, no

Hit me on my line, tellin' me the same thing every time
You should be mine, baby
How could someone let a good thing go and walk out they life?
He didn't try, baby
So bring it around my way
Turn around your whole day
I'ma play my part, babe
I'ma fix your heartbreak

I'm gon' break it down (Break it down)
I'm gon' pick it up (I'm gon' pick it up)
Turn that ass around (Aw yeah)
I can't get enough (No, no)
Steal your heart, baby (Baby)

Play my part, baby (Baby)
For tonight, baby
Perfect time, baby
I'm gon' break it down (Yeah)
I'm gon' pick it up (I'm gon' pick it up)
Turn that ass around (Oh)
I can't get enough (Oh)
Steal your heart, baby
Play my part, baby
For tonight, baby
Perfect time, baby

Hit me on my line, tellin' me the same thing every time
You should be mine, baby
How could someone let a good thing go and walk out they life?
He didn't try, baby
So bring it around my way
Turn around your whole day
I'ma play my part, babe
I'ma fix your heartbreak (Ow)

Bring it around my way, turn around your whole day, oh
