Stamina

I got you acting out of character
Gon' catch your breath, girl, we're just warming up
Let me know when you've had enough
Let me know when you're giving up

Shoot the gun, that's the cue when to start
Extraneous, raising both of our heart rates
Doing the dash, we're running laps, 400 meters
And you can brag, 'cause you know that I'm undefeated

Been a minute since we caught up, you freak, bitch
When I'm not there, do you try to pretend?
You be running when I call ya
You be cumming when I call ya

Can you handle pressure
Making a big mess of you in this room?
Hope you don't run out of stamina

I got you acting out of character
Gon' catch your breath, girl, we're just warming up
Let me know when you've had enough
Let me know when you're giving up
