

Lose Someone Like Me

Tones And I

Hello, my old friend
I never thought we'd meet again
I told myself I didn't care about you
And since you left, you look so well
The best of me has been through hell
But if you asked I wouldn't talk about it

Oh hello, my old friend
If you were here, then I'd pretend
That I don't sit and fantasize about us
Where you are, where you live now
And did you leave your parents' house
But I don't care, so I don't think about it

We could have been the greatest
But we just made a scene
And you can't say I didn't try, but I had to set you free
And it was truly something, the way you left with ease
It couldn't have been that hard for you to lose someone like me
To lose someone like me

Oh hello, it's been awhile
My number's changed in case you've tried
To call my name, 'cause I have dialed a thousand times before
And I'd hang up before it calls, 'cause things aren't like they were before
But I don't care, so I don't think about it

Oh hello, my old friend
If you were here, then I'd pretend
That I don't sit and fantasize about us
Where you are, where you live now
And did you leave your parents' house
But I don't care, so I don't think about it

We could have been the greatest
But we just made a scene
And you can't say I didn't try, but I had to set you free
And it was truly something, the way you left with ease
It couldn't have been that hard for you to lose someone like me
To lose someone like me

All of the voices, hear all of them saying
Don't leave me, don't leave me
I need you to stay here with me
Oh believe me, I don't let it show
How could you just let me go?

We could have been the greatest
But we just made a scene
And you can't say I didn't try, but I had to set you free
And it was truly something, the way you left with ease
It couldn't have been that hard for you to lose someone like me
To lose someone like me
