

Only One

Tones And I

Calling out your name
What would you do if we just start again
If I saw you would you still feel the same
Or would we both just smile and walk away
'Cause lately I've been dreaming on the past with you
Maybe I just moved a little fast
And now I'm wondering if I should have stayed
'Cause lately I've been dreaming of your face

And I wouldn't ask for a single second
That I don't think of your face
And I still remember the day we broke it
But I still feel the same

'Cause darling you are the only one I'd ever love
'Cause darling you are the only one I'll ever love
There's no one like you, give you everything under the sun
It's always been you, you're the only one I'd ever love
Do you still love me too?

Holding out my hand for you
Imagining that you'd just hold me still
Wishing we could dance again
Or are you with another girl?
And the thought of that just kills me
Did we make a big mistake
Should I just reach out and call you?
Or just pretend you feel the same

And I wouldn't ask for a single second
That I don't think of your face
And I still remember the day we broke
But I still feel the same

'Cause darling you are the only one I'd ever love
'Cause darling you are the only one I'll ever love
There's no one like you, give you everything under the sun
It's always been you, you're the only one I'd ever love
Do you still love me too?

Do you still love me?
Do you still love me?
Do you still love me too?
Do you still love me too?

Do you still love me too?
