

Waiting For The End

Tonight Alive

I suppress beads of sweat
In the heat of the moment
Feel my pulse rising up
I begin losing focus
'Cause you can't back down
When I tell you how it is
And always will be
And I won't stop now
For the sake of doubt
That does not belong to me

Here I am
I'm proud to stand
For more than living scared to death
And even if I fall
I'll prove you wrong
'Cause I am not afraid to live
I'm not just waiting for the end
'Cause we were born for more than this
I'm not just waiting for the end
Don't care if we're different
I'm not just waiting for the end

I suppose it's not your fault
You're just like everyone else
Set of rules and demands
How could there be anything else?
Until you stand there and say
That you dedicated your whole
Damn life to one thing
I won't be taking on
What you're loading off
Is the reason to fight for something

Here I am
I'm proud to stand
For more than living scared to death
And even if I fall
I'll prove you wrong
'Cause I am not afraid to live
I'm not just waiting for the end
'Cause we were born for more than this
I'm not just waiting for the end
Don't care if we're different
I'm not just waiting for the end

Wake up, sleeping soul
Wake up, sleeping soul
Wake up, sleeping soul
Wake up, wake up, wake
Wake up, sleeping soul

Here I am

I'm proud to stand
For more than living scared to death
And even if I fall
I'll prove you wrong
'Cause I am not afraid to live
'Cause we were born for more than this
