

Ask Me

Tony Bennett

If you're wondering what her eyes conceal
Ask me, I know
If you're wondering how her kiss would feel
Ask me, I know

I can tell you it's a thrill to hold her
And how warm her pretty face is on my shoulder

It's a feeling you can't forget
It just won't go
And it's bound to leave you starry-eyed
And all aglow

So ask me all there is to know
About her
Even how to live without her
Ask me, I know
