Close Enough for Love

Tony Bennett

You and I, an unmatched pair Took the time to touch, to share Worlds apart the night we met We braved the odds and won the bet

Not perfect yet But close enough for love

How old-fashioned, pure romance Shared a kiss, we shared a dance Shared the body and bouquet We'll taste the wine another day

When you and I Are close enough for love

Not just lovers, more than friends Who knows where one starts and one ends Tracing lights through sleepless nights That I'll remember always, always

Long goodbyes and tearful looks
Hold up well in poems and in books
But you and I have life to hold
The greatest story never told

Not perfect yet But close enough for love
