

Forget Her

Tony Bennett

It's easy to say forget her
Go out and be gay, forget her
But someone tell me this
How does a heart dismiss
The memory of her kiss
That lingers on

They say don't be blue, forget her
She's not good for you, forget her
One of these days I'll say goodbye
I may not even cry
But will my heart and I
Forget her?
