Little Things

Tony Bennett

I believe in little things That you can hardly see Like honeycomb and spider webs And starfish in the sea

I believe in little things Like icy drops of rain That melt into the morning mist When winds are warm again

I believe in little things Like colors in the sky And noticing the waves roll in And how the flowers die

Knowing they'll come back again Whenever it's July

I believe in little things Like you and me And just how big Little things can be
