

The Riviera

Tony Bennett

The Riviera
On every street a gay casino
Where continentals sip their vino
And leave their fortunes to chance

The Riviera
Nevada's number one casino
Where ladies make the play for dino
In that pursuit of romance

Every gay mademoiselle
Is disarming some maharajah
With the daring of her décolletage

Every [?] will be willing to bet you
She's gonna be what you will get

Ah the Riviera
Where every golden coat of suntan
Has cost the gold of more than one man
Who wasn't warned in advance

He can live like a king
Have a fabulous fling
Then as a token for the dough that he's sunk
He gets a little label slapped on his trunk
The Riviera

The Riviera
