

Trapped in the Web of Love

Tony Bennett

Love's the big game hunter who held a poison dart
I was game and you took aim and you struck me to my heart

And now I'm
Trapped in a web of love
Yes, I'm trapped in a web of love
Trapped, trapped, trapped, I'm
Trapped in a web of love

Love's a big witch doctor who stirred a brew for me
I took sips from your sweet lips and now I can't get free

Because I'm
Trapped in a web of love
Yes, I'm trapped in a web of love
Trapped, trapped, trapped, I'm
Trapped in a web of love

Like a bird in a cage flipping it's wings in rage
I can't fly away
You've clipped my wings I've got to stay

Love's a green eyed monster with oh so many charms
It wrapped itself around my heart with sixty million arms

And now I'm
Trapped in a web of love
Yes, I'm trapped in a web of love
Trapped, trapped, trapped, I'm
Trapped in a web of love

Love's a big, black cobra that reared its ugly head
It got me hung with honey tongue then I wished that I were dead

I am
Trapped in a web of love
Yes, I'm trapped in a web of love
Trapped, trapped, trapped, I'm
Trapped in a web of love

Love's a big magician with great, big bulging eyes
Double whammed and alakazam-ed and you cut me right down to size

Now I'm
Trapped in a web of love
Yes, I'm trapped in a web of love
Trapped, trapped, trapped, I'm
Trapped, trapped in a web of love
