

While We Were Young

Tony Bennett

Ah, thank you Alec. Alec Wilder ladies and gentlemen, the one and only. Beautiful! This is one of Alec's songs

Songs were made to sing
While we're young
Every day is spring
While we're young

None can refuse
Time flies too fast
Too dear to lose
And too sweet to last

Though it may be just
For today
Share our love we must
While we may

So blue the skies
All sweet surprise
Shines before our eyes
While we're young
