

A Fine Fine Day

Tony Carey

When my Uncle Sonny blew back into town, Said "I'll just go for a ride and have a look 'round."
And he took off his fedora, and stuck his fingers in the crown,
And he pulled out twenty dollars and he laid that money down.

And he called out to a taxi cab,
"Take me down to central park,
And keep that meter runnin'
to the twenty dollar mark."
And he kept his eyes turned forward and he sat up straight and tall
And no one even noticed him, no one cared at all.

It's a Fine, Fine Day,
for a reunion.
It's a Fine, Fine Day,
for comin' home.
You did your sittin',
you did hard time.
But you ain't gonna sit no more,
they can't keep you there no more.
It's a Fine, Fine Day
And nothin's gonna take it,
nothin's gonna take it away
It's a Fine, Fine Day.

First time I saw Sonny,
I was just about this tall
And he always made my momma kinda crazy when he'd call.
Him and my old man would stand and whisper in the hall Then they'd dissappear, and maybe not come home at all.

Then one day Sonny stopped comin' round Heard he'd gotten himself into a little trouble out in town Sometime after that he finally disappeared for good,
Then he pulled out ol' Houdini, like we always knew he would!

"I see you made it back alright, alright.
I see you're none the worse for wear
It's been a long time comin'
Nothin's gonna drag you away from here!"

A Fine, Fine Day!
And nothin's gonna take,
nothin's gonna take it away
Oh yeah
A Fine, Fine Day... A Fine Day
