

Del Rio, You're Making Me Cry

Tony Joe White

Making love until the sunset turns into morning light
Coffee and tortillas in bed for breakfast
Sometimes hellos hurt more than goodbye
Del Rio, you're making me cry

Just a shade of grey in a world of black and white
Scared to go home, but I can't turn back
Sometimes you have to let go just to keep it alive
Del Rio, you're making me cry

Well it's better to be a loser than never play the game
Cause sometimes all the winner gets is pain
Maybe it's the pain that helps you survive
Del Rio, you're making me cry

Sometimes it don't rain enough to settle the dust
But that west Texas rainbow still reminds me of us
Do you remember the day our love almost died?
Del Rio, you're making me cry
Del Rio, you're making me cry

Do you remember the day our love almost died?
Del Rio, you're making me cry
Del Rio, you're making me cry
