

Ice Cream Man

Tony Joe White

She's a cover pulling mama but I don't mind her in my bed
I got the fireplace going and the firewood in the shed
She got a nice warm body and sweet dreams in her head

She's a cool mamma jamma but she don't like to wait
If you tell her you're coming well you better not show up late
She's a shotgun rider but she don't open no gates

She's a laid back lover with a destin tan
She's a hip slinging momma and you know I'm her ice cream man

Sometimes she's a little girl licking on an ice cream cone
But she can be a man handler, you know the woman is strong
She can play all day, ride the gator all night long

She's a laid back lover with a destin tan
She's a hip slinging momma and you know I'm her ice cream man
