

Paris Mood Tonight

Tony Joe White

The seasons change
Making the promise of another chance
I'll miss the summer rains
But now I move into the autumn dance

Like a shadow in the dark
So hard to see but easy to feel
I only know what's in my heart
And who's to say that dreams aren't real

Somewhere in the wind
I hear you whisper my name
And love never plays
The same song twice
In a Paris mood tonight

There was no beginning
There's no end
Our love is timeless
It's always been
Stronger than the reason why
A Paris mood tonight

A melody just for us
The guitar plays softly down on the street
I feel the rhythm of your touch
This moment in time was meant to be

Somewhere in the night
Passion fills the air
This moonlight love affair
Feels so right
I'm in a Paris mood tonight
In a Paris mood tonight
In a Paris mood tonight
In a Paris mood
