

Death Of Me

Tony Lucca

How long did you say you'd love me?
Forever take too long
If I'd held my breath
You'd be the death of me

You told me you'd always be there
Guess I must have heard you wrong
Cause if I'd held my breath
You'd be the death of me

Promised you'd never leave me
Well never seems to of come and gone
You find yourself someone else
I find myself all alone
Baby, tell me where you've gone?

Yes, we might just be ment to be
You might just come back home
But if I'd held my breath
You'd be the death of me

You promised you'd never leave me
Well never seems to of come and gone
You find yourself someone else
I find myself all alone
Baby, won't you come back home?

How long did you say you'd love me?
Forever take too long
If I'd held my breath
You'd be the death of me

If I'd held my breath
You'd be the death of me
