

Nobody's Perfect

Tony Lucca

I don't know what the future holds...
But I don't wanna cry about it anymore.
Only keep wishing for the best for so long...
Watching you for years make a game out of love,
Baby I've been dying to play though I know it's wrong.
So... Easy come and easy go
Don't have a clue until you know...
It's just something you can't put your finger on...

Nobody's taken my breath away like you've done,
Nobody else has felt quite like the only one,
Nobody's left me with such a beautiful scar,
Nobody's perfect... At least not the way you are... To me... La da da Dee... La da da Dee... yeah

I know I don't deserve to live with a broken heart... Let alone deserve to die of one...
Tell me why I can't shake it,

Tell me why it won't go away,
Tell me why can't I become the lucky one...

So, easy come and easy go...
Don't have a clue until you know...
It's just something you can't put your finger on...

Nobody's taken my breath away like you've done,
Nobody else has felt quite like the only one,
Nobody's left me with such a beautiful scar,
Nobody's perfect... At least not the way you are... To me... Oh oooooooooooo

Nobody's taken my breath away like you've done,
Nobody else has felt quite like the only one,
Nobody's left me with such a beautiful scar,
Nobody's perfect... At least not the way you are... To me... To me... La da da Dee... Yeah.
