

My Love Has No Pride

Tony Orlando & Dawn

Love is a gift in a package
Wrapped up in ribbons and curls
Some kind of feeling deep in my heart
I wouldn't trade for the world

Why do you run from my love now
You've never known love like mine
Bring down the curtain, take every bow
You'll never leave me behind

Cause baby
My love has no pride
Call me a fool
Push me a side
My love has no pride
Send me away
I'm gonna stay by your side
You can tell your friends that we're through
They'll be telling you baby
My love has no pride
And I'm gonna stay in love with you

Maybe you need someone clever
Or someone to call you some names
I should have never showed you my cards
Maybe I've played a few games

Maybe my love is too simple
I should play hard to get too
But there's no denying that my love is strong
Just to keep on loving you

Cause baby
My love has no pride
Call me a fool
Push me a side
My love has no pride
Send me away
I'm gonna stay by your side
You can tell your friends that we're through
They'll be telling you baby
My love has no pride
And I'm gonna stay in love with you

My love has no pride baby
I'm gonna stay in love with you
My love has no pride baby
Go ahead and do the things you want to do
