

Before I Cave In

Too Close To Touch

I'll wait for you to worry
As a taste of truth is burning

Something's slowing starving me
Were you even listening
No, no, no
Gave you every part of me
Maybe you were meant to leave
So, so, so

You're just no good for me
I'm a dying breed
Two hearts that beat in sync but they could never be

Something's slowly starving me
Were you even listening
No, no, no
Gave you every part of me
Maybe you were meant to leave
So, so, so

So get out, get out of my head
Just get out, get out I beg
Just get out, get out of my head
Before I cave in
So get out, get out of my head
Just get out, get out I beg
Just get out, get out of my head
Before I cave in

You've got your grip on me
It's just the way you need
To hell with you and everything you take from me

Something's slowly starving me
Were you even listening
No, no, no
I gave you every part of me
Maybe you were meant to leave
So, so, so

So get out, get out of my head
Just get out, get out I beg
Just get out, get out of my head
Before I cave in
So get out, get out of my head
Just get out, get out I beg
Just get out, get out of my head
Before I cave in

Something's slowly starving me
Were you even listening
No, no, no
Gave you every part of me
Maybe you were meant to leave
So, so, so

So get out, get out of my head
Just get out, get out I beg
Just get out, get out of my head
Before I cave in
So get out, get out of my head
Just get out, get out I beg
Just get out, get out of my head
Before I cave in

So get out, get out of my head
Just get out, get out I beg
Just get out, get out of my head
Before I cave in

Before I cave in
