Jerk-Off

Tool

Someone told me once
That there's a right and wrong.
And that punishment was cure
For those who dare to cross the line.
But it must not be true for jerk-offs like you.
Maybe it takes longer to catch a total asshole.
But I'm tired of waiting.

Someone told me once
That there's a right and wrong,
And that punishment was cure
For those who dare to cross the line.
But it must not be true for jerk-offs like you.
Maybe it's just bullshit
and I should play GOD
and shoot you myself.
Because I'm tired of waiting.

Consequences dictate our course of action
And it doesn't matter what's right.
It's only wrong if you get caught.
If consequences dictate my course of action
I should play GOD and just shoot you myself.
I'm very tired of waiting.
DIE!
Someone told me once

Maybe, yes, it's just bullshit and I should play GOD,
and shoot you myself.*
Because I'm tired of waiting.

Consequences dictate
our course of action
and it doesn't matter what's right.
It's only wrong if you get caught.
If consequences dictate

I should kick you,
beat you,
fuck you,
and then shoot you in your fucking head.
