

Where I go, I'm spotted
(For real and that's no question)
And anything I want, I got it
(No frontin' and no guessin')
Five-five with brown eyes
(Caramel complexion)
Smile like the sunrise
(Body like heaven)

Met that lil' baby a week ago and I ain't care 'bout who she know
I got secrets and I can't keep it
I think you should know
Five-five and she too fine
I got that fever, baby, you mine

I can't wait to tell her that I love her
You know I love it when she fuck me
Way she fuck me, got me feelin' like she mean it
I know she a angel, catch 'em angles when we fuckin'
I'ma fuck her
When I fuck her, I'ma do it like a demon

Elevated to wait too long
Gon' put her on top
This her favourite song
When the song drop, got her on lock
Baby got her own Glock
I'ma buy her stones, rocks

Diamonds, 'cause she a diamond, she own lots
And the better part about it, got her own spot
Snitch on me, she know not
Play around and she gon' cry

I was readin' Rosetta showin' every letter
Audemar for the A and B, I'm doin' better

Met that lil' baby a week ago and I ain't care 'bout who she know
I got secrets and I can't keep it
I think you should know
Five-five and she too fine
I got that fever, baby, you mine

I can't wait to tell her that I love her
You know I love it when she fuck me
Way she fuck me, got me feelin' like she mean it
I know she a angel, catch 'em angles when we fuckin'
I'ma fuck her
When I fuck her, I'ma do it like a demon

I tote my own Glock
VVS, my stone pop
Skreet, nigga bitch
In my Birkin I hold my nigga wap
G5 flights, we fly private, pack my nigga chop
In love with a stepper so don't make me send a nigga drop

I can't wait to get home
When I fuck you, I'ma fuck you in a Rover
We got options, I might fuck you in a Demon

Rap bitch but he got me singin'
Six foot, he swingin'
I might let you bring a bitch and double team him
I mean it

Met that lil' baby a week ago and I ain't care 'bout who she know
I got secrets and I can't keep it
I think you should know
Five-five and she too fine
I got that fever, baby, you mine

I can't wait to tell her that I love her
You know I love it when she fuck me
Way she fuck me, got me feelin' like she mean it
I know she a angel, catch 'em angles when we fuckin'
I'ma fuck her
When I fuck her, I'ma do it like a demon

Put baby inside a new drop
I'ma buy a new watch
She know I'm her nigga and she know that you not
Credible for that new spot
I got it
'Cause she ain't worry 'bout shit
'Cause she know I'm a top shotter

Bring her to the hood, she know she fuckin' with a G
Everything she done seen, gonna keep it low key
If she don't swear to die, everything went on me
If you gassed up, you won't even get stuff on me

Met that lil' baby a week ago and I ain't care 'bout who she know
I got secrets and I can't keep it
I think you should know
Five-five and she too fine
I got that fever, baby, you mine

I can't wait to tell her that I love her
You know I love it when she fuck me
Way she fuck me, got me feelin' like she mean it
I know she a angel, catch 'em angles when we fuckin'
I'ma fuck her
When I fuck her, I'ma do it like a demon
