

Frozen Below Zero

Toosii

(Hundred Points)

Yeah

Brand new gun on, I'm tryna have some fun
Hangin' out the back window like, "Where they at?"
It's just been me in that ride, lately been tottin' straps
They tell me, "Switch it up" like they want me promotin' that
Like, "Okay, cool, let's speak on how when you really push shit back", uh

My heart frozen below zero
Don't you go try to be no hero
I'll be comin' fast in my Camaro
When the hallways cavin' in, didn't get dinero, uh
Slap the sixty in a brand new Drac', uh
I'm the one that's gon' eat they face, uh
Knowin' here with me that you ain't never out of place, uh
I'm the one that's gon' put a nigga out of space, yeah, uh

Shots gon' ring if they play with lil' Too'
It's been a minute since I hooped, uh
Me and Mill' was ridin' Honda coupe
Fightin' behind my momma house
That's before I ain't like to get out the house
That's when I had really learned what life about
Back when Tyler was in car turbo
Back when I wore scarfs and I wore turbans
Way before the bulletproof suburbans
Way before I lived with the suburbans
Way before you hurt me, I deserved it
Way before you hurt me, I'm still learnin'
When it's time to drill, don't you get nervous
Put your mask on because we purgin'
We gon' hit they block, we killin' everything on surface
Closed eyes, feel like blackout curtains
You can see a stars when it's emergin'
How come they ain't never seen my purpose?
How come they ain't keep me like I'm worth it?
How come they ain't never gave me credit?
Gave 'em game like I birthed it

Brand new gun on, I'm tryna have some fun
Hangin' out the back window like, "Where they at?"
It's just been me in that ride, lately been tottin' straps
They tell me, "Switch it up" like they want me promotin' that
Like, "Okay, cool, let's speak on how when you really push shit back", uh

My heart frozen below zero
Don't you go try to be no hero
I'll be comin' fast in my Camaro

Knowin' here with me that you ain't never out of place, uh
I'm the one that's gon' put a nigga out of space, yeah, uh

Like few years back, I wasn't no one
Nobody ain't used to show me no love

I knew I would blow like, "What's the hold up?"
I done got my goals up
Booked overseas, gettin' my shows up
Investin' my money, got my bankroll up
They ain't think I knew much
I said, "Okay, cool, well, I'm gon' show you"
Millions in my deal, I told 'em "Shonuff"
Wish my granddaddy was here so he could see me blow up, up
H-Town, I used to like the harmony
That's before I thought 'bout tryna run the streets
That's before I fell in love with music, finally found the beats
That's when I felt trapped inside the wall but I done found a key
That's when I had found you, you my missin' piece
That's before I learned to keep the shit discreet
That's when I had learned they play with us, we keep in the streets
Don't let it be beef, because we posted
They gon' find your body in the ocean, yeah

Brand new gun on, I'm tryna have some fun
Hangin' out the back window like, "Where they at?"
It's just been me in that ride, lately been tottin' straps
They tell me, "Switch it up" like they want me promotin' that
Like, "Okay, cool, let's speak on how when you really push shit back", uh

My heart frozen below zero
Don't you go try to be no hero
I'll be comin' fast in my Camaro

Knowin' here with me that you ain't never out of place, uh
I'm the one that's gon' put a nigga out of space, yeah, uh

Tell me what's goin' on?
Tell me what's goin' on?
Tell me what's goin' on?
Oh, oh, oh
