

How Does It Feel

Toosii

How does it feel to know I really don't need ya
When you in my dreams the only time that I see ya
Blind man walkin' got no guidance I been fallin' in love
You gon' make me drown in the tub
I been way too wasted
You a Gemini you two-faced and
I don't know I tried to replace it
Every time I leave I never end up goin' places
Look at all the time I done wasted

You remind of somebody that I used to know
And you take him all the places that we used to go
Okay, and you want me to fall out of love, no way
How does it feel to know I'm not okay
Okay, okay

I done spun the block 'bout ya a thousand times
Is it crazy that I'm dying about mine
'Bout mine, 'bout mine
And you always complain 'bout me spending time
You already know I'm on my grind
My grind, my grind
I done fell outta love and now you wanna cry
I don't even know I tried
I tried, I tried
If I walk away now tell me if you mine
I on really think that you gon' mind
Gon' mind, gon' mind
And I really don't even know if you care that I shine
You done been around long enough, you seen water turn to wine
Every time that you did me bad I told people I was fine
Even though I won't fine, I won't fine

How does it feel to know I really don't need ya
When you in my dreams the only time that I see ya
Blind man walkin' got no guidance I been fallin' in love
You gon' make me drown in the tub
I been way too wasted
You a Gemini you two-faced and
I don't know I tried to replace it
Every time I leave I never end up goin' places
Look at all the time I done wasted

You remind of somebody that I used to know
And you take him all the places that we used to go
Okay, and you want me to fall out of love, no way
How does it feel to know I'm not okay
Okay, okay

Now my heart getting torn into a million pieces
It's okay 'cause I know you the reason
Why oh why
For some reason you treat me like I'm a demon
You don't even really wanna see me on demon time
And I really don't even know if you care that you mine
You done been around long enough but who really counting time
Every time that you did me wrong I told people it's alright

Even though it won't alright, alright

How does it feel to know I really don't need ya
When you in my dreams the only time that I see ya
Blind man walkin' got no guidance I been fallin' in love
You gon' make me drown in the tub
I been way too wasted
You a Gemini you two-faced and
I don't know I tried to replace it
Every time I leave I never end up goin' places
Look at all the time I done wasted

You remind of somebody that I used to know
And you take him all the places that we used to go
Okay, and you want me to fall out of love, no way
How does it feel to know I'm not okay
Okay, okay
