

I won't make this one too long, you hear me?
Yeah, uh

When you found me, uh, I was on the edge, yeah
But then you left me, yeah, you up and left me for dead, uh, okay
So now I'm solo ridin', no love or trust for nobody
Except my main slime, got AMP right beside me, and Johnnie
Oh, can't forget Flip, Quick and Big Z
Other than that, a ho can't get no love from a G
AIn't it crazy how the moment life feel so amazing
Things can turn around and you left there just feelin' naked?
Bakin', abandoned, stranded, all alone
That's the reason I don't come out and stay inside my home
I got this thing with myself, you fool me once, shame on you
Fool me twice, then I can't put the blame on you
Fool me three times, baby, I'm from the Eastside
And you know how we ride, I let it rain on you
I wrote in my journal like I'm gon' be be the world's greatest Won't happen overnight, but mama, look how I made it
Patience is virtue but lately I'm jaded
Hopin' somebody take my heart and save it

I play hard like I'm tough, you're knowin' that it's a bluff, uh
Oh, what, you think you know me? That's what's up
I still got Tahdre in a cut, what's a name in the blunt
Don't give a damn, baby, I don't give a fuck
And this time, tonight, I'll be alright
Uh, I'll be alright, I'll be just fine

Oh, you think I'm selfish? Why you think I can't help it?
Everybody I depended on when I was selfless, turned
And left me by myself with a burn
That's the reason right now I left my heart inside a urn, I'm the Joker
You poked the bear 'til I couldn't cope, but Then wanna be friends when I act like didn't know you
Well, it's too late
You already showed me that you two-faced
I don't trip, I tighten up my shoelace

I play hard like I'm tough, you're knowin' that it's a bluff, uh
Oh, what, you think you know me? That's what's up
I still got Tahdre in a cut, what's a name in the blunt
Don't give a damn, baby, I don't give a fuck
And this time, tonight, I'll be alright
Uh, I'll be alright, I'll be just fine
