Keeper
(Yea)
My baby she don't like nobody
(Yea)
I got a keeper right beside me
(Yea)
See she could go wherever the wind blows and I know I feel her still inside me
(Yea)
My baby she don't like nobody
(Yea)
I got a keeper right beside me
(Yea)
See she could go wherever the wind blows and I know I feel her still inside

(Yea)
My baby she don't like no one, no one, no one, no one, no one
No one, no one, no one, no one, hold up
Gotta give her everything that she needs
Even diamonds and rings I just wanna grow older Yea, yea
And we could grow old like Viv and Phil
It's just something bout when I'm working I can't be sitting still You gon tell me chill cause you know a nigga be in the field
And I love you take your timing with me cause you know I'm getting older (ye a, yea)
I'm a soldier you know that soldiers cry
I just hope they salute me like how when soldiers die
Hold yo head up been through a lot
But I'm holding mine I can't even lie you so so fine and you been on my mind
Give you all the finest of things, all the diamonds and rings
Spend it all that's on me I'm just waiting til the wait is over
Love my baby so much I done made a folder

My baby she don't like nobody
(Yea)
I got a keeper right beside me
(Yea)
See she could go wherever the wind blows and I know I feel her still inside me
(Yea)
My baby she don't like nobody
(Yea)
I got a keeper right beside me
My baby she don't even like me
Sometimes she wanna fight me
Fell in love with a Leo but her attitude on Pisces Nasty like a Scorpio, it's just more than likely
When we in missionary she gon lean up and try to bite me
Love her and I mean all well I done told a small tell
You know how it all fell down in the end I'ma love you til I'm all pale
Trapped in a small cell
You go so hard it's only bound for you to win
And you know it's only bound for you to win
It was bound for me to sin
Everybody went against me so I'm bout to be on 10
What I hated most was everybody acted like my friend
And I can't even lie you been my friend gon be it til the end

Give you all the finest of things all the diamonds and rings
Spend it all it's on me
Play with her I pop like a soda
Love my baby so much I done made a folder
