

Label Me Diverse (Interview)

Toosii

[Interviewer:] What's your motto in life?

Uhh... When life gives you lemons, I believe, you plant a seed and grow more. Call it impossible I'll let that mindset be optional. My image I paint for people, isn't given to make me look good. It's just truly who I am. All apologies if I come off the wrong way

[Interviewer:] If you could do anything, what would it be?

[King Toosii:] Same thing any other real nigga would do [Toosii laughs] My moms need a house, I work too hard. She work even harder

[Interviewer:] Okay, okay, so. What's the meaning of your cover title, "Label Me Diverse?"

Uhh... The meaning of the cover title was basically me being diverse. I mean... I hate to use it in sentence, I ain't mean it like that; but, it's me being different, naa mean? Uhh, the place that I grew up it wasn't too many people around me who chose this path. Actually, there was no other person that I know that chose this path and I just gotta get it. That's the whole concept of the baby in the middle of the road, with drugs and guns to the side, naa mean? I'm on my own road and they on they own path, Imma do me [Interviewer:] Okay, cool, wow, well uh, last question. Where do you see yourself in 5 years?
