

Sticks And Stones

Toosii

You can't tell me that you love me
'Cause I know the truth and love really hurt so bad
You can't tell me that you love me when I know you really hope
I only burn and crash
Save her
She don't wanna be saved, her heart made of glass
Uh, sticks and stones, they make break my bones, but your words
won't last

You only love me when you all alone and can't get sleep
You so emotionless, I bet your heart don't even beep
You left me right inside a warzone, and fortunes keep
And never came back, it all felt so bittersweet

You look just like demons in my dream
Don't need your company
I'm so tired, can't even sleep
But scared to go to sleep

The odds even now
I met a girl yesterday, and she was sweet as Now-and-Laters
And she don't need no one to save her
And she's courageous, and she's her own savior
Uh, left letters inside your backpack
Still haven't took a nap yet
Only because I'm scared of my demons
Only to find that you the one I'm running from
And then I realized that you the demon that I been seeing

So tell me, how do I feel?
Once you realize that love isn't even real
It was all a dream, but you fall in love still Just to wake up wit' nothin' that you built

You look just like demons in my dream
Don't need your company
I'm so tired can't even sleep
But scared to go to sleep

You can't tell me that you love me
'Cause I know the truth and love really hurt so bad
You can't tell me that you love me when I know you really hope
I only burn and crash
Save her
She don't wanna be saved, her heart made of glass
Uh, sticks and stones, they make break my bones, but your words
won't last
