Tell me who need friend when
You came in the world alone
I never trusted nobody
Never gave my heart to nobody
Cause I know all I got is myself

Tell me who needs friends
I came in this world on my own
Do you know how it feel to be alone
Ya ask me why I ain't got feelings
Baby it's a million reasons
But ya probably won't want dealings
1 because my trust
2 just ain't enough
People who understand the world living off of lust
So tell me how I'm posed to fall in love
When everyone I meet just break my heart turn it to dust

I wrote our names on the mirror
Hoping to see it clearer
That just won't suffice
Mama say ya got hear her
Mama I understand but people come and go
That's just life
So tell me now where do I go from here
I want you to know death ain't my closest fear
I fear losing love
Cause death is the end of the story
Love is when we live inside our glory

Yea so I wanna be loved forever
I hope maybe we experience love together
But until then
I'll keep writing your name in the mirror
In hopes one day that I can see it clearer

I wrote our names on the mirror
Hoping to see it clearer
That just won't suffice
Mama say ya got hear her
Mama I understand but people come and go
That's just life
So tell me now where do I go from here
I want you to know death ain't my closest fear
I fear losing love
Cause death is the end of the story
Love is when we live inside our glory

I used to live inside my glory back in 2016
Way before I understood how much the world could be mean
I told myself 1, 000 times I wouldn't change for a thing
Until they broke me to the core and up making me bleed
I hate you
But love you
I'm devastated
Too many sad songs on my playlists
Ok

I never thought I'd ever heal
I'm just keeping it real
I broke that mirror in the room because I hate it

I wrote our names on the mirror
Hoping to see it clearer
That just won't suffice
Mama say ya got hear her
Mama I understand but people come and go
That's just life
So tell me now where do I go from here
I want you to know death ain't my closest fear
I fear losing love
Cause death is the end of the story
Love is when we live inside our glory
