

Snow

Toothgrinder

Snow sleep, a good rest
Sometimes kept best in bed
My countryside wanderlust
I will always be the author of my life

So long, so long
I won't wait for you, I won't wait for you
So long, hold strong
Time won't wait for you, time won't wait for you
No

Honesty a liars game
A checkerboard with poker shame

So long, so long
I won't wait for you, I won't wait for you
So long, hold strong
Time won't wait for you, time won't wait for you

So long, so long
I won't wait for you, I won't wait for you
So long, hold strong
Time won't wait for you, time won't wait for you
