

The Hour Angle

Toothgrinder

Paving my own way. So what?
These damn apartments are going nowhere
Hold time right between the eyes
Because you'll never get it back kid you'll never get it back
Over indulgence in the cracks of my history
Hold this time (time)
Right between its eyes
Because you'll never get it back kid you'll never get it back
From my cold hands, I will never leave you behind
From my cold dead hands
Free you from these changes of time
So hold tight right between the eyes
Just hold tight right between the eyes
Cause there ain't a prayer in sight
That will keep your soul alive
Cause you'll never get it back kid
You'll never get it back
I understand, but I refuse
With a thousand words, but Judas sings
My contradiction, father time
So what?
These damn apartments are going nowhere
(I refuse)
Father time why do you keep letting me down
Letting me down (Killing me)
So hold tight, it's quite a ride, stay sharp or lose your mind
(Reap) (Comeback)
(Reap) (Comeback)
(Stay away)
(Stay away)
(Fuck it)
So what? These damn apartments are going nowhere
