

Anything

Tops

Anything

If ever there was anything
That could change this thing that's happening
If ever there was anything

It was different then
Distant feeling when you lose a friend
It hurts to look at what it used to be
I miss you, and it's sad cause that's what's meant for me

I don't have anything
I wish I could treat you the same
As I did when we was both in love
Anything we did was not enough
Now it's gone
I don't have anything

Anything
If ever there was anything
That could change this thing that's happening
If ever there was anything

Where have I gone?
I'm just myself done wrong
I feel it, yeah I kick my myself around
I lost it, it was everything
And now it's done

I don't have anything
I wish I could treat you the same
As I did when we was both in love
Anything we did was not enough
Now it's gone
I don't have anything
I don't have anything
