

Go Away

Tops

If you want the sun
I am hotter than love
Tell me where
Tell me when
I'm your lover

I bought a locket
So I could hide all of my secrets away
Hide my secrets from you
You can come but you cannot stay

You can go away
You can go away

If you want the sun
I am hotter than love
Tell me where
Tell me when
I'm your lover

I bought a locket
So I could hide all of my secrets away
Hide my secrets from you
You can come but you cannot stay

You can go away
You can go away

I bought a locket
So I could hide all of my secrets away
Hide my secrets from you
You can come but you cannot stay

You can go away
You can go away
You can go away
You can go away
