

Looking to Remember

Tops

Hey, now, yeah, what you sayin'?
Haven't been seeing much of you around
On your way to find
Come on, make up your mind
There's no guarantee there
Nobody here to show you the way

Looking to remember
Give me a reason
Face in the mirror

Who you really see there?
You decide what you wanna be
Days go by, denying
Why you say you wanna stay the same
Everything you hiding
Come on, now, don't you know they see it anyway?

Looking to remember
Give me a reason
Face in the mirror
Tell me who you really see there
Do you believe you decide what you wanna be?

Looking to remember
Give me a reason
Face in the mirror
Tell me who you really see there
Do you believe you decide what you wanna be?
You decide what you wanna be
You decide what you wanna be
