Petals

Tops

All I wanna do
Let the petals fall away
All I wanna do is call your name

Last night
Last night on earth today
I'll make it worthwhile
If you promise to do the same
You saw the taillight
In the water on the windowpane
Did you notice
You were scratching the paint?

Got a phone full of numbers
And a list full of names
No one to call, not much to say

All I wanna do
Let the petals fall away
All I wanna do is call your name

Make it worthwhile
Inheritor of the shade
Finger pointing
Where the light used to lay
A long haired heiress
With someone else to blame
Can you take it
If you never get your fame?

Got a phone full of numbers
And a list full of names
No one to call, not much to say anyway

All I wanna do
Let the petals fall away
All I wanna do is call your name
