

Topless

Tops

You lost your way to me somehow
And crushed the day into the ground
Take your top off, show me around
Don't make me take your picture down

You say that nothing here has changed
Fly away
You say that nothing here is strange

You realize
You just found out it's too late
Now you're caught
You're caught in the middle of what you started
I know that you could take it all away
But I hope that you don't wanna

You strike the match until it breaks
Kick the door in, there's no escape
The other side, is it the same?

You say that nothing here has changed
Fly away
You say that nothing here is strange

I need you by I need you by my side babe
It's so right
It's saccharine, it's so bitter
Hold it in, you and I don't need to pay
For what we want 'cause we both got it

You realize It's so right
Hold it in for what we want 'cause
Hold it in, you and I don't need to pay
For what we want 'cause we both got it
