Torche

Wake up
There's no one around
And I find ways to hide
Yes, I will pretend
I don't need to love again

Look away
We don't meet eyes
I said it's fine
You will survive
Yes, I will pretend
I don't need to love again
Again

I won't get left behind
My overwhelming mind
The fence is up for reasons
I cannot share that side
Yes, I will pretend
I don't need to love again
Again
Again
Again

Still I will pretend
I don't need to love again
Again
Again
Again
