

Fat Waves

Torche

Make up yourself
It's time to go
No need of your Indecisions

Hide the man
Whose legend's grown
In vain
And made enough
To beat us down again
I am the one, vengeful
Stand tall
I've found my way out

Lead the way
Along with our control
Aging, the land you never own

Hide the man
Whose legend's grown in vain
And made enough
To beat us down again
I am the one, vengeful
Stand tall
I've found my way out
