

Favorite Hello

Tori Kelly

You stood not more than three feet from me
Might have been your eyes that got to me

Thought I would remain unmoved
Thought I wouldn't care that your smile lights up rooms
Suddenly I want you close
Who knows if this turns into love
But you were my favorite "hello"

Something so mysterious in you
Careful with each step I take towards you

Ohh
Thought I wouldn't make a move
Thought I wouldn't care that your smile lights up rooms
Suddenly I want you close
Who knows if this turns into love
But you were my favorite "hello"

Hello
But you said "hello"

Thought I would remain unmoved
Thought I wouldn't care you light up every room
Then you looked at me that way

Thought I would remain unmoved, ohhh
Thought I wouldn't care that your smile lights up rooms
Suddenly I want you close
Hold me now and don't let go
Who knows if this turns into love
But you were my favorite "hello"

Hello
Oooh
