

Broken Bones

Tors

She sits in the back of a dive bar
Drinking alone
She covers the ink on her arm
A name she used to know
He's running down alleys to find her
Calling her name
He wants to forgive and forget
If she can do the same, but

She's scared of getting hurt again
He won't let anybody in

But if we run oh-oh oh-oh
Could we mend our broken bones
Or do we go oh-oh oh-oh
Back to waking up alone
And he never knew that he could love like that
She never thought that she could fall so fast
But if we run oh-oh oh-oh
Are we giving up on us

She puts on the jacket he gave her
Goes out in the rain
She wishes the water would take her
To his arms again
He's 5 minutes late to the bus stop
She's already home
He sits with his head in his hands
He's sinking like a stone, but

She's scared of getting hurt again
He won't let anybody in

But if we run oh-oh oh-oh
Could we mend our broken bones
Or do we go oh-oh oh-oh
Back to waking up alone
And he never knew that he could love like that
She never thought that she could fall so fast
But if we run oh-oh oh-oh
Are we giving up on us

There's still time
For a break in the skies
Stars will shine
On your love this time
This time

But if we run oh-oh oh-oh
Could we mend our broken bones
Or do we go oh-oh oh-oh
Back to waking up alone
And he never knew that he could love like that
But if we run oh-oh oh-oh
Are we giving up on us
