

Empty Hands

Tors

Too late, too late, too late to call
I've been away, left you alone
Don't have the words, don't have the brains
Money is gone, and all that remains

Is you
I didn't notice you feeling hopeless
So blue again

And I'm standing there with empty hands
And I'm nothing more than just a man
And it breaks my heart
When I break your heart
And I promised more than I could give
And it's not the life you thought you'd live
And it breaks my heart
When I break your heart

But I got love
I got love

Lying awake, thinking of you
Saturday nights up on the roof
Sundays in bed, coffee and sleep
Head for a walk down by the sea

With you
I didn't notice you feeling hopeless
So blue again

And I'm standing there with empty hands
And I'm nothing more than just a man
And it breaks my heart
When I break your heart
And I promised more than I could give
And it's not the life you thought you'd live
And it breaks my heart
When I break your heart

But I got love
I got love

And when I come back home I see the lights
That you left on for me every night
When I see you standing at the door
Everything I want for evermore
I got love
I got love

And I'm standing there with empty hands
And I'm nothing more than just a man
And it breaks my heart
When I break your heart
And I promised more than I could give
And it's not the life you thought you'd live
And it breaks my heart
When I break your heart

But I got love
I got love
I got love
