

Miracle

Tors

Oh, oh, so bittersweet
Yeah, well, she comforts me
I, I, I'm right between
Holy and the edge of the water
Sleeping on the backseat, people walking past me
I was never someone who could turn out the lights
I wonder why
Oh, oh, oh, in my dreams
Yeah, well, she comforts me

They say it's a work of art, every time I fall apart
But it can get so lonely

Oh, I've been waiting for a miracle
Maybe I'm, maybe I'm too late
I got so scared I might have missed it all
Lately, I'm starting to lose faith
Every second I wait, every minute I try
Every hour I waste, a day goes by
Oh, I've been waiting for a miracle
Maybe I'll make it there someday

Oh, oh, I leave tonight
Drive through the warning signs
Cold wind to keep my eyes
Open till I get where I'm going
I'm not gonna slow down, till I see my home town
Reflected in the mirror like a light in the sky
I know this time
Oh, oh, I won't think twice
Drive through the warning signs

They say it's a work of art, every time I fall apart
But it can get so lonely

Oh, I've been waiting for a miracle
Maybe I'm, maybe I'm too late
I got so scared I might have missed it all
Lately, I'm starting to lose faith
Every second I wait, every minute I try
Every hour I waste, a day goes by
Oh, I've been waiting for a miracle
Maybe I'll make it there someday

Oh, the
Now I understand when nothing ever happens
Overnight, that's alright

Somebody save me with a miracle
Maybe I'm, maybe I'm too late
I got so scared I might have missed it all
Lately, I'm starting to lose faith
Every mess that I made, every fix that I tried
Every hour I waste, a day goes by
Oh, I've been waiting for a miracle
Maybe I'll make it there someday
