

Now We Fall

Tors

Oh time, I'm about to let you go
Don't hide, all the rebel that we own
Oh that feeling we've been stealing time
Broken glass won't fit the way we like

Who am I to let you down?
Heart can break without a sound
Wings on fire now we fall
Who am I to say at all?

We cry, but we're putting on a show
Words fly, so the quiet's not alone
Take a moment bless it in disguise
Just so you can say that you're surprised

Who am I to let you down?
Heart can break without a sound
Wings on fire now we fall
Who am I to say at all?

Oh why do we fall?
Oh why do we fall?
Oh why do we fall?

Who am I to let you down?
Heart can break without a sound
Wings on fire now we fall
Who am I to say at all?
Ooh, now we fall
Ooh, now we fall
Ooh, now we fall
Ooh, now we fall
