

High Notes

Tory Lanez

Take my love aside
Talking of my appreciation, babe
Touch me, feel me on you
Half of me, know we can't play no games

Love in the bedroom
Feeling I'm addicted to it
Knocking the headboard
Baby, I'm addicted to it

I wanna make love to you daily
We can do our thing 'til the sun comes up
Baby, if this love was a symphony
If love was a symphony
Then we'd be the high notes
Yeah, raising the high notes
Raising the high notes

Take my confidence in
Make it bigger 'cause girl, I need you
Give me necessary
All the things to, all this love, baby

Love in the bedroom
Feeling I'm addicted to it
Knocking the headboard
Your my gun and I'ma pull the trigger just to show it

I wanna make love to you daily
We can do our thing 'til the sun comes up
Baby, if this love was a symphony
If love was a symphony
Then we'd be the high notes
Yeah, raising the high notes
Raising the high notes

Take me away from it
Pretty little symphony
Pretty little symphony
