Higher and Higher

Total Touch

[CHORUS]
You lift me higher and higher, until I'll get enough.
You set my soul so on fire, I think I am in love.
Higher and higher, I'll never have enough.
You set my soul so much brighter,
I think I am in love.

[CHORUS]

You give me reason to cry,
you give me reason to smile.
Love is confusing me, bitterness almost took place,
but mercy turned to embrace, that was the miracle called love.

Now here we are, our trust made us right from above,
it's amazing the way love grows.

[CHORUS]

You're appearence make it all clear,
there is nothing to fear, it makes me warm and emotional.
You're so strong give me more,
its only you I adore, I can't go back to what I left behind.

I discovered a new world,
and found out it all begins with you.
