

Black Infinity

Totalselfhatred

Distant echoes
Silent screams of eerie shadows
In an unknown language
Still so enticing
Descending deeper
As the pressure grows
The glow of the stars fading
The glow of the stars fading
Everything's so blurred
Beneath these murky waters

Coldness
Isolation
Hypothermia
Calmness
After all the pain and the freezing panic
My tears becoming one with the ocean
As my body slowly dissolves into the vast ocean floor
Reaching towards the sunken truth
Gigantic tentacles embrace
